WESTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

BY

~~DEPUTY~~

BRANDON CALLIER,

Plaintiff,

V.

GREENSKY INC., a Delaware Corporation

Defendant.

EP 20 CV 0304

PLAINTIFF'S ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

PARTIES

1. The Plaintiff is BRANDON CALLIER, a natural person and resident of the Western District of Texas, and was present in Texas for all calls, in this case in El Paso County.
2. Defendant GREENSKY, INC is a Delaware Corporation with a principal address at 5565 Glenridge Connector, Suite 700, Atlanta, Georgia 30342 and can be served via registered agent National Registered Agents, Inc., 289 S Culver Street, Lawrenceville, Georgia 30046.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. Jurisdiction. This Court has federal-question subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff's TCPA claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because the TCPA is a federal statute. Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC, 565 U.S. 368, 372 (2012). This Court has supplemental subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claim arising under Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053 because that claim arises from the same nucleus of operative fact, i.e., Defendants' telemarketing robocalls to Plaintiff; adds little complexity to the case; and doesn't seek money damages, so it is unlikely to predominate over the TCPA claims.

4. Personal Jurisdiction. This Court has general personal jurisdiction over the defendant because they have repeatedly placed calls to Texas residents, and derive revenue from Texas residents, and they sell goods and services to Texas residents, including the Plaintiff.
5. Venue. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1)-(2) because a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims—the calls and sale of goods and services directed at Texas residents, including the Plaintiff—occurred in this District and because the Plaintiff resides in this District. Residing in the Western District of Texas when he received a substantial if not every single call from the Defendants that are the subject matter of this lawsuit.
6. This Court has venue over the defendants because the calls at issue were sent by or on behalf of the above-named defendants to the Plaintiff, a Texas resident.

THE TELEPHONE CONSUMER PROTECTION

ACT OF 1991, 47 U.S.C. § 227

7. In 1991, Congress enacted the TCPA to restrict the use of sophisticated telemarketing equipment that could target millions of consumers en masse. Congress found that these calls were not only a nuisance and an invasion of privacy to consumers specifically but were also a threat to interstate commerce generally. See S. Rep. No. 102-178, at 2-3 (1991), as reprinted in 1991 U.S.C.C.A.N. 1968, 1969-71.
8. The TCPA makes it unlawful “to make any call (other than a call made for emergency purposes or made with the prior express consent of the called party) using an automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice ... to any telephone number assigned to a ... cellular telephone service.” 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii).
9. The TCPA makes it unlawful “to initiate any telephone call to any residential telephone line using an artificial or prerecorded voice to deliver a message without the prior express consent of the called party, unless the call is initiated for emergency purposes, is made solely pursuant to the collection of a debt owed to or guaranteed by the United States, or is exempted by rule or order” of the Federal Communication Commission (“FCC”). 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(B).

10. The TCPA provides a private cause of action to persons who receive calls in violation of § 227(b). 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).
11. Separately, the TCPA bans making telemarketing calls without a do-not-call policy available upon demand. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(1).¹
12. The TCPA provides a private cause of action to persons who receive calls in violation of § 227(c) or a regulation promulgated thereunder. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).
13. According to findings of the FCC, the agency vested by Congress with authority to issue regulations implementing the TCPA, automated or prerecorded telephone calls are a greater nuisance and invasion of privacy than live solicitation calls and can be costly and inconvenient.
14. The FCC also recognizes that “wireless customers are charged for incoming calls whether they pay in advance or after the minutes are used.” In re Rules and Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 18 FCC Rcd. 14014, 14115 ¶ 165 (2003).
15. The FCC requires “prior express written consent” for all autodialed or prerecorded telemarketing robocalls to wireless numbers and residential lines. In particular:[A] consumer’s written consent to receive telemarketing robocalls must be signed and be sufficient to show that the consumer: (1) received clear and conspicuous disclosure of the consequences of providing the requested consent, i.e., that the consumer will receive future calls that deliver prerecorded messages by or on behalf of a specific seller; and (2) having received this information, agrees unambiguously to receive such calls at a telephone number the consumer designates. In addition, the written agreement must be obtained without requiring, directly or indirectly, that the agreement be executed as a condition of purchasing any good or service.

16. In the Matter of Rules & Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 27 FCC Rcd. 1830, 1844 ¶ 33 (2012) (footnote and internal quotation marks omitted). FCC regulations “generally establish that the party on whose behalf a solicitation is made bears ultimate responsibility for any violations.” In the Matter of Rules and Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 10 FCC Rcd. 12391, 12397 ¶ 13 (1995).
17. The FCC confirmed this principle in 2013, when it explained that “a seller ... may be held vicariously liable under federal common law principles of agency for violations of either section 227(b) or section 227(c) that are committed by third-party telemarketers.” In the Matter of the Joint Petition Filed by Dish Network, LLC, 28 FCC Rcd. 6574, 6574 ¶ 1 (2013).
18. Under the TCPA, a text message is a call. Satterfield v. Simon & Schuster, Inc., 569 F.3d 946, 951 – 52 (9th Cir. 2009).
19. A corporate officer involved in the telemarketing at issue may be personally liable under the TCPA. E.g., Jackson Five Star Catering, Inc. v. Beason, Case No. 10-10010, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 159985, at *10 (E.D. Mich. Nov. 8, 2013) (“[M]any courts have held that corporate actors can be individually liable for violating the TCPA where they had direct, personal participation in or personally authorized the conduct found to have violated the statute.”

(internal quotation marks omitted)); Maryland v. Universal Elections, 787 F. Supp. 2d 408, 415 – 16 (D. Md. 2011) (“If an individual acting on behalf of a corporation could avoid individual liability, the TCPA would lose much of its force.”).

The Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053

- 20. The Texas Business and Commerce code has an analogous portion that is related to the TCPA and was violated in this case.
- 21. The Plaintiff may seek damages under this Texas law for violations of 47 USC 227 or subchapter A and seek $500 in statutory damages or $1500 for willful or knowing damages.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

- 22. On November 21, 2020 at 1:07 PM Plaintiff received a call on his cell phone from phone number (915) 975-1004.
- 23. The caller ID displayed the name as “GreenSkyProgram.”
- 24. When Plaintiff answered the call, Plaintiff said hello three times before the phone disconnected after 20 seconds of silence from the Defendant’s side of the phone.
- 25. This indicated the call was made using autodialing technology and the autodialing technology failed to connect the call to a live agent.
- 26. On November 21, 2020 at 2:28 PM Plaintiff received another call from (915) 975-1004.
- 27. On November 23, 2020 at 5:41 PM Plaintiff received a call on his cell phone from phone number (915) 975-1064.
- 28. The caller ID displayed the name as “GreenSkyProgram.”
- 29. When the Plaintiff answered the call, Plaintiff said hello three times before the phone call was connected to a live agent after about 10 seconds, indicating the call was made using autodialing technology.

30. The live agent asked to speak to “Armando.”
31. The Plaintiff informed the agent they had the wrong number and to remove his number from their calling system.
32. Plaintiff called the number back and asked the name of the company and was told it was GreenSky, INC.
33. On November 25, 2020 at 9:36 AM Plaintiff received yet another call from “GreenSkyProgrm” phone number 915-975-1034.
34. Plaintiff answered the phone and said “hello” three times before being connected to an agent.
35. The agent asked to speak to “Armando.”
36. Plaintiff informed the Defendants yet again they had the wrong number and to remove his number from their calling system.
37. On November 27, 2020 at 10:43 AM Plaintiff received yet another call from “GreenSkyProgrm” phone number 915-975-1034.
38. Plaintiff answered the phone and said “hello” three times before being connected to an agent.
39. The agent asked to speak to “Armando.”
40. Plaintiff informed the Defendants yet again they had the wrong number and to remove his number from their calling system.
41. On October 30, 2020 Plaintiff received a phone call from 915-975-0785 believed to be from Defendant Green Sky.
42. On November 2, 2020 Plaintiff received a phone call from 915-975-0785 believed to be from Defendant Green Skey.
43. Mr. Callier has limited data storage capacity on his cellular telephone. Incoming telemarketing calls consumed part of this capacity.

- 44. No emergency necessitated the calls
- 45. Each call was sent by an ATDS.
- 46. Plaintiff never consented to these calls.
- 47. Plaintiff has no relationship with Defendant.

Vicarious Liability of the Sellers

- 48. These parties are vicariously liable under the theories of actual authority, apparent authority, and ratification, and as well as liable because any other result would impair the underlying purpose of the TCPA.
- 49. Defendant GreenSky is the liable party as the direct beneficiary of the illegal telemarketing calls.

THE SELLERS SHOULD BE HELD LIABLE TO UPHOLD THE DETERRENT EFFECT AND PURPOSE OF THE TCPA

- 50. As the court ruled in Jackson v Caribbean Cruise Line, Inc., the defendant sellers should be held liable for their violations of the TCPA. Courts have looked at the purpose of the TCPA and found that not holding the sellers liable through vicarious liability would undermine the purpose of the TCPA.
- 51. Every entity involved in the call should be deemed a beneficiary of the calls and held liable for damages under the TCPA under vicarious liability. Sellers are in the best position to monitor and police third party telemarketer's compliance with the TCPA and to hold otherwise would leave consumers without an effective remedy for telemarketing intrusions.

INJURY, HARM, DAMAGES, and ACTUAL DAMAGES

AS A RESULT OF THE CALLS

- 52. Defendant's calls harmed the Plaintiff by causing the very harm that Congress sought to prevent—a “nuisance and invasion of privacy.”

53. Defendant’s calls harmed the Plaintiff by trespassing upon and interfering with Plaintiff’s rights and interests in Plaintiff’s cellular telephone.

54. Defendant’s calls harmed the Plaintiff by trespassing upon and interfering with Plaintiff’s rights and interests in Plaintiff’s cellular telephone line.

55. Defendant’s calls harmed the Plaintiff by intruding upon Plaintiff’s seclusion.

56. The Plaintiff has been harmed, injured, and damages by the calls including, but not limited to:

- Reduced Device Storage space and reduced data plan usage
- Invasion of privacy
- Reduced enjoyment and usage of my cell phone
- Reduced battery usage
- Anger and Frustration

The Plaintiff’s cell phone is a residential number

57. The calls were to the Plaintiff’s cellular phone 915-383-4604, which is the Plaintiff’s personal cell phone that he uses for personal, family, and household use. The Plaintiff maintains no landline phones at his residence and has not done so for at least 10 years and primarily relies on cellular phones to communicate with friends and family. The Plaintiff also uses his cell phone for navigation purposes, sending and receiving emails, timing food when cooking, and sending and receiving text messages. The Plaintiff further has his cell phone registered in his personal name, pays the cell phone from his personal accounts, and the phone is not primarily used for any business purpose.

Violations of the Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053

58. The actions of the defendants violated the Texas Business and Commerce Code 305.053 by placing automated calls to a cell phone which violate 47 USC 227(b). The calls by the defendants violated Texas law by placing calls with a pre-recorded message to a cell phone which violate 47 USC 227(c)(5) and 47 USC 227(d) and 47 USC 227(d)(3) and 47 USC 227(e).
59. The calls by the defendants violated Texas law by spoofing the caller ID's per 47 USC 227(e) which in turn violates the Texas statute.
